

Sylvia Raynor-R. A. Hutchins Married in First Baptist Rite

First Baptist Church of Torrance was the setting for the wedding ceremony on June 29 at 7:30 p.m. when Miss Sylvia Raynor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Raynor, 1414-Q 167th St., became the bride of Robert Allen Hutchins, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hutchins, of Wilmington.

The Rev. Morgan Gates conducted the double ring candle-light ceremony in the presence of 125 friends and relatives. Daryl Orwig, at the organ, played the wedding marches and accompanied Miss Lorraine Roberts, soloist.

Heading the bridal entourage were the bridesmaids, Misses Diane Hutchins and Virginia Martinez. Miss Hutchins wore orchid tulle and lace and carried a yellow carnation cascade. Miss Martinez was in aqua tulle and lace and carried yellow carnations.

Brothers of Lodge Host Rebekahs

At the July 24 meeting of the Torrance Rebekah Lodge to be held in the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave., the brothers of the lodge will be the hosts to the ladies of the organization.

Mrs. Edna Valenzuela, the new district deputy president, of District 66 was present at the last meeting and gave the instruction to the officers. Other distinguished guests were present from Santa Monica, El Segundo and Fresno.

Mrs. Valenzuela announced her district chairman at this time and they are: Press, Mrs. Olive Veatch, of the Torrance lodge; Good Fellowship, Mrs. Ann Cramer, of Hawthorne; United Pilgrimage for Youth, Mrs. Ila Mason, also of Hawthorne.

The Noble Grand has announced that she has appointed Mrs. Juanita McNew as Warden to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Lillian Blackman. Mrs. McNew will be installed at a later date. Also appointed were Mrs. Retta Nelson to fill the term of Mrs. Emma Evans and Mrs. Anna Rollman to fill Mrs. Blackman's term on the financial committee. Mrs. Belva Brase was appointed Past Noble Grand for the duration of the summer months.

Hostess of the evening were the Past Noble Grands of the Lodge.

The following motored to Santa Monica on July 11 to attend Courtesy Night: Maude Milburn, Eugenia Johnson, Irma Powers, Angelina Disario and Edith Rogan.

Mrs. Talley served coffee cake to those present and announced the next business meeting would be held at Avenue Park, Sept. 10 at 10 a.m. with a pot luck luncheon to follow.

Perry

Plans for the Perry PTA annual fall carnival are under way, according to chairman Lester Cooper, who held a meeting of carnival committee chairmen on June 24, at his home at 4311 W. 174th St. The proposed date of the carnival is Saturday, Oct. 26, and a futuristic theme will be followed.

"One of many new attractions to be featured to be fea-tions to be featured this year will be a celebrated glamour clown, Wally Lapp, who will be on hand to provide laughs for children and adults," announced the president of Perry PTA, Mrs. Kenneth Judd. No

Walteria PTA has announced plans for the coming year based on the theme of "The Strength of PTA Vision, Courage, Action—Our Children."

Meetings for the coming year will all be held in the evenings so that more fathers may attend the programs of local and international interest. The program committee is planning the roster under the leadership of Chairman Mrs. Henry Fink Jr.

A goal of 10 per cent increase in membership over last year has been set by the membership committee chair-manned by Mrs. C. W. Johnson.

A grease drive for fall is in the offing, with housewives requested to save all their waste kitchen fats. This drive will replace the paper drives of the last few years.

The annual PTA Halloween Carnival is rapidly taking shape for the month of October.

Casimir

The newly elected officers of the Casimir Avenue PTA held their first executive board meeting recently at the home of Mrs. B. Peters, president.

To better enable the PTA officers and chairmen to perform their duties efficiently next semester, several instruction programs are scheduled during summer vacation.

Mrs. L. B. Graham requested that permanent booths for the annual carnival be made as soon as possible. It was agreed upon and Mrs. Graham will make arrangements to have them made in time for the carnival this coming fall semester.

PTA hostesses at the graduation exercises were Mmes. C. Sewell, R. Gladdys and R. Hobbs.

Other members attending were Mmes. C. Long, B. Levin, B. Cook, G. Ferello, L. Cunningham, T. Knighten, L. Nelson and Mr. J. Dunworth, principal.

Also Mmes. Y. Forbes, H. Malini, H. Tracy, G. Stashak, N. Boy, M. Schroeder, W. Baker, T. Rogers, P. Keller and Mr. W. Buettgenbach.

During the meeting, various tentative program suggestions were discussed for next semester. After the meeting was adjourned, refreshments were served by Mrs. Peters.

other plans have been revealed as yet, but it has been hinted by those on the committee that many surprises will be in store for Perry families and friends at the carnival.

Committee members present at the carnival planning meeting were Mmes. Lester Cooper, Jerome Lemberger, Eugene Phillips, James Reynolds, Carl Swanson, Robert West and Mr. Glenn Thomas.
